OPEN CLASSES

- Free access to casual classes with no need to book or sign up for an entire term.
- Participation can be irregular; however, it is necessary to book the lesson either online or at the studio reception. Reservation can be cancelled without cancellation fee 24 hours before the lesson.
- Bookings can only be made if you have purchased the class (your registration is necessary). This purchase can be completed online or at the studio reception.
- Class price, its duration, level and capacity are always displayed in the schedule.
- You can access an Open Class lesson with a One-time entry, a Multi-day Pass, an Open Card Pass or with a gift voucher.

COURSE

- It is a closed course lasting one semester (February - June / September - January), consisting of several classes.
- Usually, dance classes follow one another, so we recommend not to miss them.
- The dance/exercise style and the price of the whole course are listed in the schedule, as well as the capacity of the course, the duration of each lesson and its level.
- You can also purchase any course as a gift. Gift vouchers are available to purchase through our website or at the reception.
